Our mission is to take care of grieving moms in the minutes, hours and days after infant loss through a 7-Part Holistic Program.

We fulfill this mission through a Holistic Program immediately following the loss of a child by supporting the mom with funeral planning, meal and gift cards, professional house cleaning, professional massage therapy, support group placement, licensed mental health counseling and support from a volunteer support coordinator.

The Finley Project exists in order for moms to know there is someone supporting them in the gap between the hospital and the home. The Finley Project will walk with a mom through the horrific trauma of losing a child not just right after, but in the days, months and years ahead.
